No Permit Required Events

The "Privately Hosted Event" Exception

If the event is truly private and not open to the general public, and the alcohol is furnished by the host without charge to those attending, then no alcohol permit is required. To qualify for this exception, you must be hosting a social, business or recreational event for which

- an entire room, area, hall (or building) has been leased or rented in advance;
- the event is limited in attendance to people who have been specifically designated (and their guests);
- the alcoholic beverages are furnished without charge. This exception does not apply to events to which the general public is invited, whether for an admission fee or not;

Thus, you will need to establish some way to determine at the door that only those who have been invited (and their guests) are admitted, and not the general public. There can be no indirect sale of alcohol by way of charging admission or selling tickets to offset the cost of the alcohol. Perhaps the best example of the "privately hosted event" exception is a private wedding where those attending have been specially invited and are on a guest list, and the host provides the alcohol at no charge to the wedding guests.

You may hold a privately hosted event for a single day or several days, and there are no set hours for alcohol service. You may serve any liquor, wine or beer at the event as long as it has been purchased in Utah. You should also take precautions to ensure that no one under 21 years of age is served alcohol at the private event. You could be potentially liable for serving someone you knew or should have known was under the age of 21, and they become intoxicated and injure or cause damage to another person.

Note that under Utah's keg beer law, any beer served under the "privately hosted event" exception must be in bottles or cans purchased at retail. Beer may not be served "on draft" from a keg. The keg law prohibits anyone, other than a licensed or permitted beer retailer, from being in possession of beer in containers larger than two liters. It also prohibits beer distributors or wholesalers from selling keg beer to anyone other than a licensed or permitted beer retailer. Also, there is no provision in the law that allows dispensing of "heavy beer" (over 3.2% alcohol content) on draft from kegs.

X. Prohibited and Regulated Activities

Please reference West Jordan City Code Section 8-13-5, as amended, for a complete list of prohibited and regulated activities. The following highlights specific areas of concern or are in addition to the ordinance. Where it is not contrary to the City Code, exception to prohibited and regulated activities may be included as part of a Special Event Permit.

A. General Compliance with Laws. It is the responsibility of all Users and Visitors, whether by reservation, permit, or otherwise, to comply with all applicable Federal, State and Local laws, ordinances, rules, regulations and policies. If use is by reservation or permit, the person to whom such reservation or permit is issued shall be responsible to immediately inform others and the City

B. Alcohol Use. It is unlawful for any person to consume or possess any beer or any alcoholic beverage within any City Park. It is unlawful for any person to consume or possess any beer or any alcoholic beverage within other City Facilities, unless expressly allowed in writing as part of a Special Event Permit.

Dear West Jordan City Hall,

On July 12, 2014, we are going to celebrate our daughter's baptism at Pioneer Hall. We are planning to have alcohol at the event. We want to serve beer to our guests during the celebration. The estimated amount of people we are expecting to have is about 180. Each person will only be allowed to have 3 beers because since it's going to be so many people, everyone is going to have an equal share. We would really appreciate it if our letter gets accepted, but we will also understand if it comes to the point that we aren't able to have the beer during the event. Thank you for taking the time to read our letter.

Sincerely,

Guadalupe Medina §
